

In order to function well as a free society we need as many points of view over the airways as is possible. Please do not loosen the ownership rules.